ISRAEL

September 23–25, 2011

On September 20, 2011, the Palestinian Authority will approach the United Nations General Assembly and will unilaterally insist on UN recognition of a Palestinian state.

What's at Stake?

The Jewish People and Israel

The Palestinians refuse to recognize that the Jewish people have a right to their national homeland, the state of Israel.

Coming Back To Palestine Is A Matter Of Time

Jerusalem

The Palestinians are calling for a return to the pre-1967 borders, including East Jerusalem as the Palestinian Capital.

SECURITY Green Light to TERROR

Hamas has been classified as a terrorist organization by:

- The United States
- The European Union
- Canada
- Israel

SECURITY Green Light to TERROR

Premature recognition means recognition of terrorists!

SECURITY Green Light to TERROR

The reconciliation between Fatah and the terrorist organization Hamas, would mean a de-facto recognition of the brutal Hamas terrorist regime.

SECURITY Green Light to TERROR

Hamas continues to call for the destruction of Israel.

REAL PEACE

REAL PEACE

A Unilateral Declaration will intensify rather than end the conflict by not settling any of the key permanent status issues including:

- Recognition of Israel as a Jewish state
- Borders
- Refugees

REAL PEACE

Leaving these issues unresolved would add fuel to the already fiery conflict, rewarding
unilateralism, rejectionism and terrorism.

IS IT LEGAL?

A unilateral declaration of Palestinian statehood undermines internationally accepted frameworks for Mid-east peace, which call for a mutually-negotiated and agreed-resolution of the conflict.

A ONE-SIDED RESOLUTION
DOES NOT ADVANCE PEACE;
IT MOVES PEACE BACKWARDS.

*“The Palestinian Authority
will never recognize Israel
as the Jewish state.”*

Negotiator
